Encompassing Lexington District

Let my teaching fall like rain and my words descend like dew, like showers on new grass, like abundant rain on tender plants. I will proclaim the name of the LORD. Oh, praise the greatness of our God! He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is He.

Merry
Christmas

Over and over throughout the Christmas season, we are admonished to remember the true meaning of Christmas. Yet we still so often miss it. We speak words that “Jesus is the Reason” while living a life of stress and extreme busyness. I know. I do it myself way too often. I sometimes wistfully dream of retreating to a mountaintop on Thanksgiving and not returning until New Years so that I can ponder the glorious wonders of the season without the distractions of the world. Then reality hits me, and as someone I know once tactfully reminded me, my sinful self would still be there with me on the mountain! When I truly begin to think more about Christmas and its true meaning, my desire for solitude on the mountaintop so that I can enjoy Christmas in peace is really pretty selfish (Yes, I know that solitude can be a good thing- even Jesus took times for that. We definitely need times where we withdraw from the world around us and spend concentrated time with God. However, Jesus always came back down from the mountain and engaged with the world around him). My desire to be alone at Christmas is kind of like wanting to hoard all the Christmas presents for myself and not share any of them with those around me. You see, the true meaning of the season is not just that a baby was born in Bethlehem some 2000 years ago. It’s way more than that. From the very beginning of the Bible in the book of Genesis, we see that God created a beautiful world. We see that man fell and sin entered the world. And we see that we are in need of a Redeemer who will rescue and restore us. That baby who was born in that lowly manger is a beautiful image at Christmas. Babies are so sweet and precious, right?

But the story goes on. That baby was born so that God's Son could live a fully human life here on earth. He lived a perfect life, so that He could then die an undeserved death on the cross to take the penalty for our sin- MY sin! Now I am a new creation!

¹⁷ Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. ¹⁸ All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; ¹⁹ that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. ²⁰ Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. ²¹ For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (2 Corinthians 5:17-21)

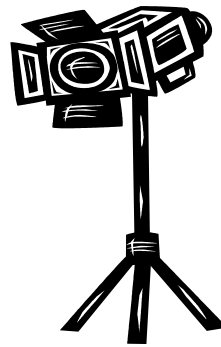

This is great news! News that we should want to unselfishly share with the world around us! But it's a little hard to be that ambassador who shares that good news if I'm holed up in my mountaintop retreat and isolated from the world. If I'm going to be Christ's ambassador, what would that look like this Christmas season? How will I interact with the people I encounter in the stores, in my neighborhood, and even in my own family? Christ's birth is a wonderful event to celebrate this Christmas, but remember that His birth is just the beginning of a wonderful message that we have to share with our children and the world around us! What an amazing opportunity we have this season to share with others that best gift of all!!

“Coordinator Spotlight”

While all of our coordinators and volunteers give all glory to God while they serve SHIELD, and would probably prefer to stay out of the spotlight, we thought you would enjoy getting to know them a little more!

Michelle Steyne has blessed SHIELD in various ways over the years, currently serving on the THRILL Advisory Panel. Michelle and her husband Paul have been homeschooling for 27 years! Christopher, Nicole and Tori have all graduated and Joseph is currently in the 9th grade.

Q. How long have you been in SHIELD?

A. Since 1995. It was called WCLEA when I first joined.

Q. What is your favorite SHIELD activity/event?

A. When my kids were younger the Boys and Girls Clubs were our favorite activities. Now it is THRILL and Yearbook.

Q. What do you find the most challenging about homeschooling?

A. Balancing being a home school mom and being a wife to my husband, Paul. I have a tendency to let home school planning, teaching, and daily activities that go into taking care of a home and family consume me. I need to remember to take the time and be the wife my husband needs me to be.

Q. What is your dream vacation?

A. An Alaskan Cruise. (Maybe it will be my retiring from home schooling gift in 3 1/2 years)

Q. What is your favorite book? (other than the Bible!)

A. Right now I am reading 1000 Gifts by Ann Voskamp; it is definitely becoming my favorite book

Q. What is a favorite scripture passage or verse?

A. "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth" 3 John 1:4 NIV

Yearbook News

We need your photos... We still need club pictures. If you missed the October deadline, you may still submit them. We especially need American Girl & Boys and Girls club photos. This year we are adding, or bringing back, the following pages: SC events, friends and pets.

Please send your pictures to shieldpictures@gmail.com

Please send one photo per email and label it with the names of the people in the picture and a brief explanation of what the picture is about. Remember to take your cameras with you, snap pictures and send them in to help us make an awesome yearbook.

Note: we have just recently been made aware that phone pictures often will not work with our current software.**

SHIELD Formal 2013

January 25th, 2013, 6:30 till 10:00 pm, 9th through 12th graders, held at the Lexington Municipal Conference Center, 111 Maiden Lane in Lexington. Attendance for the evening is $25 per person. Please print out the online Registration Form and Dress, Behavior, and Dance Code provided at www.shieldonline.org/formal.htm.

To guarantee your spot, please send in your registration before the deadline on January 7th. Field trip:Christmas Tour with Historic Columbia Foundation

Date: Friday, December 14, 2012
Time: 10:30 am
Cost: $6 per participating child
Ages: All ages
Contact: Kathryn Graham, billinsky@sc.rr.com

This trip will cover the Robert Mills House, the Hampton Preston Mansion and will include a cottonboll angel craft. Cost is $6 per participating child. We are to meet in the museum shop.

Historic Columbia Foundation maintains a website of education resources where you can download education packets for the Robert Mills House and Hampton-Preston Mansion for elementary-aged students at <http://historiccolumbia.org/site/education/resources/>

When asked about resources for middle/high school level, this was the reply: "While we do not have the in-depth guides like we do for elementary age students, high school teachers tend to have their students read passages from a book they've selected prior to visiting the site. One book that I would definitely recommend assigning passages from is Mary Boykin Chesnut's A Diary From Dixie. Here is a link to the digital version: <http://docsouth.unc.edu/southlit/chesnut/maryches.html>. The book's chapters are organized by location and time period so I'd recommend them reading the chapters of her in Charleston, Columbia, and maybe even Richmond at the end of the Civil War. Her diary is one of the best-known diaries of the antebellum South and the Civil War. She was very good friends with the Hampton's and the Hampton-Preston Mansion is mentioned in numerous entries."

If you are interested in this field trip and have not yet signed up, please email Kathryn Graham at billinsky@sc.rr.com with the names of the children who will be participating and I will give you my address for payment. Payment should be received by December 7, 2012.

Field trip:Lexington Museum: Early Christmas Crafts

231 Fox Street, Lexington, SC 29072

Date: Tuesday, December 18, 2012Time: 1:00-2:00 pmCost: freeAges: K-6Contact: Heather Schaub, theschaubs@juno.com

Early Christmas Crafts - This tour is given for only a few weeks in December. The John Fox House circa 1832 is decorated with period decorations which the children are shown as they look through the house. After the tour, the children make these same early decorations such as popcorn strings, pomanders, and gum drop trees which they are allowed to take home. This program is a most memorable Christmas experience!

Field trip:Discovery Place, Charlotte, NC<http://www.discoveryplace.org/>Date: Monday, January 07, 2013Time: 10:00 amCost: $5 per person (under 2 are free) for museum admissionContact: Kathryn Graham, billinsky@sc.rr.com

Boxed lunches can be purchased for $5.50 each if we have 15 people interested. They include choice of sandwich (turkey and provolone, ham and swiss, or organic peanut butter and jelly), side (sliced apples or Sun Chips), and drink (lemonade, apple juice box, sweet tea, unsweetened tea, or bottled water).

New information:

The IMAX movie will be "To the Arctic." You can read about it at <http://www.discoveryplace.org/imax/movie/28/To-The-Arctic> . If you want to add the IMAX movie, it will be $5 per person if we have 15 people interested.

Please contact Kathryn Graham at billinsky@sc.rr.com for more information or to sign up. Payment will be due by December 10, 2012.

Field trip:
Columbia Museum of Art
Impressionism Exhibit from Monet to Matisse

Date: Tuesday, January 29th, 2013
Time: 9:30-11:30 *Please plan to arrive no later than 9:15 AM
Cost: $3 per student and $3 per parent; children under 4 are free; *Reservations will not be secure until payment is received.
Contact: Rebecca Becker, jandbbecker@aol.com

This field trip will be completed in 2 parts: A guided tour of the exhibit and classroom project time. Only students in Kindergarten - 12th grade will make a project during the classroom time. Due to spacing in the classroom, siblings 3 and under should stay with their parents in the gallery during the supervised classroom project time.

This epic exhibition showcases important figures such as Claude-Monet, Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Edgar Degas, Mary Cassatt, Paul Cezanne, and Paul Gauguin. As students travel through the galleries, they will experience the beginning of Impressionism as well as the modern shift to Post-Impressionism, plus create their own masterpiece in the studios.

2 Groups: Elementary: 5 Year Kindergarten - Grade 5
Middle School - High School: Grades 6-12

*30 students per group limit for a total of 60 students.

To sign up, please follow these instructions exactly as shown below.

- 1) Send an e-mail to Rebecca at jandbbecker@aol.com expressing your interest with the subject line "art museum." (Don't reply to the SHIELD e-mail.)
- 2) Include in the e-mail the name and grade level of your students in kindergarten through 12th grade.
- 3) Include parent's name and contact phone number.
- 4) Include information regarding non-school age children that will be attending with your family.

Reservations will be taken in the order the e-mails are received. Rebecca will respond to your e-mail with availability and information for sending payment information which will be due in one week's time from release of the newsletter.

Field trip: SC State Museum

Date: Tuesday, February 26th, 2013
Time: 10:30 am
Cost: All students school age are free and one parent.
A second parent or a grandparent coming in addition to the one parent is $6. Infants - age 2 are free.
Ages 3 and 4 are $6.
Contact: Rebecca Becker, jandbbecker@aol.com

*Field trip will include the program below, lunch together, and free time in the museum.

Group One:

Readin', Ritin' and Responsibilities: What was it like to attend a one-room schoolhouse? Students will attend class at the Berry School and learn about daily household chores.

Grades: Kindergarten - Second Grade

*There is a 30 person limit for this section including siblings and parents.

Group Two:

Lights and Lasers: While in the Science Theatre, students will be introduced to laser technology, see how lasers work, and learn how lasers impact our lives. Explore how the tools on satellites orbiting planetary bodies use all wavelengths of the electromagnetic spectrum. Find out what scientists hope to learn about the moon's shadowy areas using ultraviolet wavelengths.

Grades: 3rd - 8th grade

*80 person limit for this section.

*For families with a K-2 student and 3-8, it will be fine to pair your child with another family. Sign up for this field trip will begin via the January newsletter. Please don't try to reserve your spot until then.

Coordinator: Rebecca Becker, jandbbecker@aol.com

Field trip:
Barrier Island Eco Tours
Isle of Palms, SC

Date: Wednesday, March 20, 2013
Time: Check in at 9:45 am, est. time 4.5 hours
Cost: $22/person (all ages)
Ages: 5 and up
Contact: April Wallace, aprilw1982@yahoo.com

Venture to Capers Island, one of the few remaining undeveloped barrier islands. We will cruise through winding tidal creeks to find diverse wildlife living in this salt marsh environment. Common sightings include bottlenose dolphin, osprey, pelicans, herons, egrets, and more. Along the way we'll employ various nets and traps for an up-close look at some of the creatures that thrive below the surface.

Payment for this trip will be broken up into two payments. First one of $10 per person is due at sign up. NO EXCEPTIONS. Final payment will be due on January 17, 2013.

Bring Bag Lunch

Contact April Wallace with any questions or concerns you may have, 803-727-0887 or aprilw1982@yahoo.com.

Field trip:
Ripley's Aquarium Sleepover
Myrtle Beach, SC

Date: Friday, April 12, 2013
Time: Check in at 7:45 pm, check out at 7:30 am
Cost: $55/person (all ages are same price)
Ages: 4 and up
Contact: April Wallace, aprilw1982@yahoo.com

I am so excited to share this opportunity with fellow homeschoolers! We will need at least 15 people to go (including adults) and as many as 100 can attend. I realize the price point is high and to make it more "affordable" for large families, a payment plan will be offered. It will be broken down into two payments of $27.50 per person. First payment will be due when registering. NO EXCEPTIONS. Second will be due Friday March 1, 2013. The payments are NON-Refundable. I have paid the original deposit to hold the date and will not be refunded in the event of a cancellation. If you see that you won't be able to attend you can get someone else to fill in for you.

Payments can be made to April Wallace via check or cash. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me @ 803-727-0887. If you would like to mail your deposit, email me and I will send over my address.

Count sharks instead of sheep while drifting off to sleep in our Dangerous Reef Tunnel in this exciting overnight adventure! Unlock the mysteries of the aquarium at night through learning activities designed to meet the needs any age group from 3 to 103!

Sample Sleepover Schedule

- An aquarium scavenger hunt
- A craft activity
- An educational presentation
- A late night snack (chips and drink) and a continental breakfast (cereal, mini muffins, juice)
- A self-guided aquarium tour
- What to bring:
- A white t-shirt to "Fish print" on
- A sleeping bag
- A pillow and if desired, a pad or air mattress.

non-SHIELD sponsored opportunity

Classical Conversations of Lexington OPEN HOUSE EVENTS!

Starting January 24th we will have 3 weekly opportunities for SHIELD families to come and see what is happening at Classical Conversations in Lexington. This is a free opportunity for the parents and children to come to one of our weekly classes (Thursdays from 9-12) and take part in Classical Conversations for the day. We have space for rising K4-7th graders and would love to have you come and have fun while learning with us. Please contact me (Jennifer McEnulty) if you would like to come and participate January 24th, February 7th, or February 14th. During these weeks we will be going over history, art, science (to include some fun experiments), geography, Latin, and math. If any of these dates do not work for you, then please contact me to schedule another time. Our registration for the fall will open up to the public in February, so this is a great opportunity to come with your children and see if Classical Conversations might be a good fit for your family! What a fun way to have school for your day....please come check us out if you are curious to know what Classical Conversations is all about!

Thanks!

About Our Newsletter...

Newsletter submissions must be received by December 28 for inclusion in the January newsletter.

The SHIELD Encourager Newsletter is published monthly and e-mailed to our members at the beginning of every month (except June & July). If you have an item you would like to submit, contact Karen Collins at kscollins1@me.com.
